

2020 EPTDA Associate Membership Application

Membership Requirements

Definition:

A firm, corporation or individual who provides services directly related to operating a business in the power transmission & motion control (PT/MC) industry.

Qualifications:

The Applicant must

- a) provide services directly related to operating a business in the PT/MC industry;
- b) display ethical conduct in dealings with EPTDA members; and
- c) not qualify for EPTDA membership under any other category.

EPTDA's internal policy provides that any application is subject to the supervisory powers of the EPTDA Board of Directors (the "Board") about the genuine fulfilment of the conditions (a) and (b), and to the disapproval of the application at the Board's sole discretion in case of reasonable doubt about such fulfilment, the authenticity of documents submitted in the application process or, in general, the sincerity of the applicant."

Associate members are not eligible to vote, serve on Committees or on the Board of Directors.

Associate members may, however, participate in special committee projects when invited to do so by the committee chairman.

Ethical Recommendations

Ethical Roadmap

EPTDA's ambition is to be the leading industry organization, setting the highest commercial, environmental, social and ethical standards by associating the most reputable and quality-driven companies, both from the distribution and manufacturing areas.

EPTDA's member companies commit themselves to be ethically, environmentally and economically sound companies, continuously striving to innovate more efficient ways of working, which is key to competitiveness (more details are available in the full RICP document that can be downloaded by clicking HERE).

EPTDA herewith invites you to subscribe to the EPTDA Roadmap as part of its ethical policy. These guidelines are not legally binding; they reflect EPTDA's commitment to following high business standards.

YES, I agree with the principles of EPTDA's Roadmap and wish to endorse it as part of the ethical policy of the association

Charity Donation

Committed to care!

As a vital part of its ethical policy and activities, EPTDA partners every year with charity organisations around Europe, and makes a contribution to support the welfare of the society and the environment. All members are invited to donate discretely and voluntarily at any time of the year, or as part of their Annual Convention registration fees.

The European Power Transmission Distributors Association joins hands with international or local organizations to help and support projects that EPTDA deems to be within its scope of activities. This kind of partnerships is one of the concrete examples of EPTDA's commitment to responsible business.

Please join us in making a difference and contributing as much as we can. EPTDA thanks you in advance for your valuable contribution towards a better society. For more information about the current charity programme, click HERE.
